

Estate Stocks

Estate paper stocks add an aura of class and sophistication, making them a popular choice for prime labels on premium products

Common Applications/Uses:

- ▶ Show that your products are made with care and quality for people with good taste. Estate paper stocks enhance the perceived value of your products and gives them a classic and elegant touch.
- ▶ With an elegant finish, Estate papers make wine and spirit bottles look and feel special.
- ▶ Estate stock adds an earthy element to food products, handmade chocolates, and organic teas which is appealing for natural or organic products.
- ▶ Estate stock adds a luxurious touch to cosmetic and skincare product labels. Its ability to support fine printing details makes it suitable for the intricate designs used in cosmetic labeling.
